

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

BUREAU OF THE MINT

Washington,

September 27, 1899.

E. Wielding Esq.,
Baltic, Ohio.

In reply to your letter of the 25th instant, you are respectfully informed that all coins struck at the Mint at New Orleans have the obverse the letter "e"; those struck at San Francisco the letter "s"; at Carson the letters "c.c."

There is no Mint mark on the Philadelphia coins.

Respectfully yours,

R. H. Butler

Acting Director of the Mint.
